Jam World Terms and Conditions
By registering for or attending Jam World, you agree to the following terms and conditions.

Photography and Filming
Jam World will be photographed and filmed.
You consent to being photographed, filmed or recorded during the event. Summer Jam may use, edit and publish this content for purposes connected with Jam World, Summer Jam and its event partnerships, including social media, websites, newsletters, event recaps, media and promotional materials.
Content may be used without further approval.

Cameras and Equipment
Canon will provide cameras for participants to use during Jam World activities. Participants only need to bring their own compatible SD card.
Participants must:

- Use the supplied camera and equipment carefully.
- Keep the camera with them while it is in their possession.
- Return the camera and equipment at the end of the Jam World event in the condition provided.

Participants are responsible for bringing their own SD card and personal belongings.

Participant Content
At the end of Jam World, participants must return the supplied camera and take their SD card and content home.
Participants retain ownership of their work and may curate and post it as a Jam World Challenge entry.
By submitting, posting or tagging challenge content, participants permit Summer Jam and Canon to edit, repost, display and publish it in connection with Jam World, Summer Jam and event partnerships. Credit will be provided where reasonably possible.

Jam World Challenges
Jam World creative challenges may be offered, with Summer Jam emailing participants the brief, submission deadline, posting requirements, relevant tags, prize and any additional terms. To enter, participants must publish their content by the deadline and follow all submission requirements.

Participant Conduct
Participants must:

- Follow instructions from Summer Jam, Canon, workshop hosts and venue staff.
- Treat other participants and members of the public respectfully.
- Respect requests from anyone who does not wish to be photographed or filmed.
- Avoid creating or publishing content that is unsafe, offensive, intrusive or misleading.
- Take responsibility for their SD card, personal equipment and belongings.

Privacy and Personal Information
Summer Jam collects the personal information you provide when registering for Jam World to administer the event, communicate with participants and manage related Jam World activities. Information is stored in Summer Jam's systems and may be disclosed to Canon Australia where reasonably required in connection with Jam World and the partnership.
Summer Jam takes reasonable steps to protect personal information from misuse, loss and unauthorised access, modification or disclosure. However, no electronic storage or transmission system can be guaranteed to be completely secure.
You may contact Summer Jam to request access to or correction of your personal information, or to raise a privacy concern.

Participants Under 18
Participants under 18 must have permission from a parent or legal guardian to attend. The parent or guardian must agree to these terms on the participant's behalf.

Safety
Participants must take reasonable care for their own safety and the safety of others while attending Jam World.

Acceptance
By registering for Jam World, you confirm that you have read and agree to these terms, including the photography, filming, camera equipment, participant content and Jam World Challenge conditions.
